

Rent the Carroll County Equestrian Center...

For your organization's next event!

Established in 1995, the Carroll County Equestrian Center is located in the Mt. Airy area of southern Carroll County. This facility features:

Ring #1—Footing: Manufactured stone dust
Size: 125 ft. X 220 ft.

Ring #2—Footing: Manufactured stone dust
Size: 140 ft. X 240 ft.

The rings are located in the center of a 27 acre site with plenty of parking area. A stone entrance drive is well marked at the Grimville Road entrance. Direction signs are located on Route 27 at Watersville Road and on Route 94 at Newport Road.

Please contact Darlene Welsh, Equestrian Center Manager, 410-861-5634, or EqCenterMgr@aol.com for further information/reservations.

The Carroll County Equestrian Council improved the site with water for horses, public address system, storage barn, pavilion, two judges stands, and developed the cross country course.

The Carroll County Equestrian Council needs enthusiastic volunteers to help improve the Equestrian Center. If you want to make a difference and feel you have something to offer, please call Carroll County Recreation and Parks 410-386-2103 or 1-888-302-8978 to ask for further information or attend the Council's monthly meetings.

The council invites you to help with this project that benefits all members of the equine community in Carroll County.

Please put information concerning this Equestrian Center in your newsletters. Donations of time, materials and/or dollars are welcome.

Future Plans

- ☞ Continue to develop Equestrian Center
- ☞ Expand trail system in Gillis Falls Watershed area.
- ☞ Promote and develop more multiuse trails.
